Summary: (machine translated)
Rappel canyon with individual cut passages.

Hydrology:

Access:

Approach: (machine translated)
The road is damaged, unsure whether it is passable on foot, the last canyon walkers have climbed over the ridge, and then back down 200m to the start.

Tour: (machine translated)
The canyon is called Double Dragon because the stream that comes from the south and exits at the same place is also bored into it, even if it is not as exciting as the one to the north.

Return: (machine translated)
In the riverbed of the larger river.

The road up is damaged, so you should start at the Visitor Center, about 3 hours up to the start. You need a permit to get past the center. Don't mention canyoning, only hiking, otherwise you won't get it. (machine translated)
