Another short canyon hike with my son, who's 10 years old. We even brought along our Jack Russell, who's used to the mountains. He rides in the backpack during the rappels. We wore 3mm neoprene today—more than enough for summer. (machine translated)

A beautiful but mostly touristy canyon. Only two rappels and long sections of hiking and climbing. But it's worth a visit. The path to the starting point is marked with a "No Entry" sign, but it's safe to walk through. (machine translated)

First ascent. Beautiful hiking gorge with 2 abseiling points and a small slide/jump. Beautiful ambience. (machine translated)
