Hydrology:

Access:

Approach: (machine translated)

To the summit Bolón hiking trails or via ferrata.

Tour: (machine translated)

The first rapel is located below the path, hidden under the largest pine tree. The anchors are marked with red dots. It is currently no problem to find the path. The first section is a scree slope that is not without danger. Two nice rock steps follow at the bottom. Two iron chains make it easier to descend the sloping terrain.

Return: (machine translated)

Red markings and cairns guide you back to the hiking trails via dilapidated terraces.
