Summary: (machine translated)
Varied hike and rappel canyon.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Langevin on the south coast road we drive towards Grand Galet, past the waterfalls and up to the houses above. Here continue to the exit of the road. There is room for 6-8 cars to park.

Approach: (machine translated)
The road now continues as a hiking trail leading towards Cap Blanc, La Plaine des Sables. We cross the Rivière Langevin and climb slightly uphill for about 45 min. At a viewpoint we have a view of the first waterfall. A little later we cross the Ravine de Sept Bras, which flows in from the right, and enter the Langevin at its mouth.

Tour: (machine translated)
See video and photos !

Return: (machine translated)
After the large natural arch over the river, we get off to the left (cairn 2017), meet our approach path at the top and follow it back to the car.
