Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
The first 85m waterfall is impressive and the rest of the route is hilarious with thousands of ledges, cliffs and rappels.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We will have to be located in Arouca, in the province of Aveiro.
From here we head towards Moldes on the CM1251 and follow this road south to Bustelo. Turn right to Espinho on the M511 until almost Merujal. When we cross the M621 we turn left to Mizarela. Here we leave the access car. Shortly before we have a detour to the right to the viewpoint and down to the village of Ribeira. Here we leave the car to return.

Approach: (machine translated)
Immediate from Mizarela.

Tour: (machine translated)
Impressive its first waterfall of 85m. Subsequently it is not so spectacular but it is worth the succession of rappels and abseilings, many of them jumpable.

Return: (machine translated)
When we reach the bridge we turn right to the village and from here to the road.
