Approach: (machine translated)
Parking is possible in Pian di Qua and Pian di La. Access from both parking lots takes the same amount of time. If you choose the parking lot in Pian di La, you will be rewarded with a hike through the narrow streets of the village at the beginning of the access. The marked trail 622 leads directly to the streambed at a wayside shrine. Get in here.

Tour: (machine translated)
Two unspectacular 20m abseils lead to the first passage of the 130m waterfall. First you rappel 30m into a small hanging pool, from where you reach the chain anchor for the next 60m (overhanging). On the following plateau you will find an anchor from which you can reach the actual belay on the edge. From here it is a good 40m to the ground.
