Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We must get to Yeste for it by the A30 take exit 56 to the CM412. We will continue until past Elche de la Sierra that we will take a detour to the left to the CM3206 to Yeste.
Once in Yeste we will go straight ahead on the AB513, after 2km we will find a track on the left, park the access car here.
If we have car of return, from Yeste we leave by the A63 (La Graya / Góntar), to the kilometer and a half we will see a track to our right and the Arroyo de Cuesta Empedrada Inferior with its rappels. We parked

Approach: (machine translated)
From the parking we go up the slope to the remains of an old track, when we reach it we turn left. We follow it 100m to the riverbed

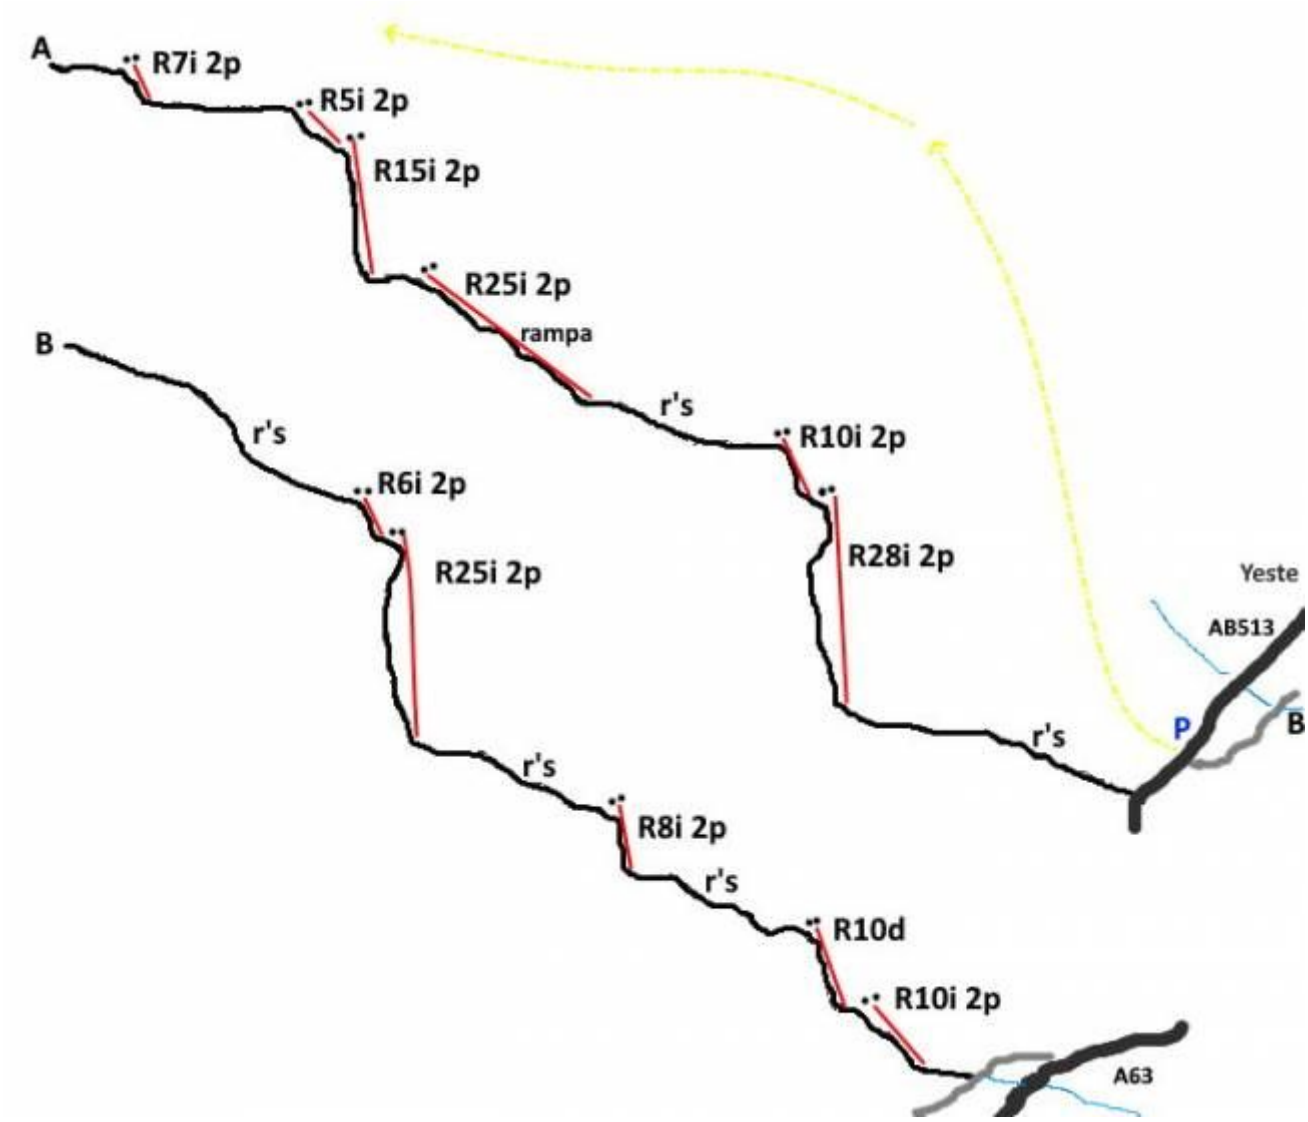

Tour: (machine translated)
Two descending sections with 300m of road to link them. Simple rappels except for the two long overhangs.

Return: (machine translated)
After the rappel we will continue towards the road, if we have two cars, the return car is there.
Without the return car, there is a path to the left that leads to the road that takes us up to the access track to the second part of the rappel.
