Summary: (machine translated) Raw data import from Descente Canyons https://www.descente-canyon.com/canyoning/canyon/21870
Hydrology: (machine translated) The exit of spring
Access: (machine translated) Drive to Bolandoz. Then follow the direction of Reugney and before leaving the village, turn off the road onto a paved path (unobtrusive sign Rochanon). Follow the road to the beginning of the canyon (clearly visible canyon, very good parking lot + Rochanon sign).
Approach: (machine translated) Go into the water at the small bridge.
Tour: (machine translated) Start with the 22 m long, partially overhanging waterfall, which is equipped with 2 chained bolts on the right bank. The rest consists of ledges that need to be de-escalated and equipped with AN. Not very engaging. You can hike a bit along the shore.
Return: (machine translated) Turn right onto the dirt road immediately after a C4. This takes you onto the road, which you follow until you reach the vehicle.
