Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Canyon with 10 simple rappels, used by companies in the area, with good flow almost all year round.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We will head towards the town of Cariño and before arriving we will take the detours that will take us to the ruins of the castle of El Casón.

Approach: (machine translated)
We can leave the car at the junction of the exit track with the road or a little further up, in the curve. The approach is made by a track somewhat closed of vegetation but with the marked path, we had to enter the river just at the first rappel.

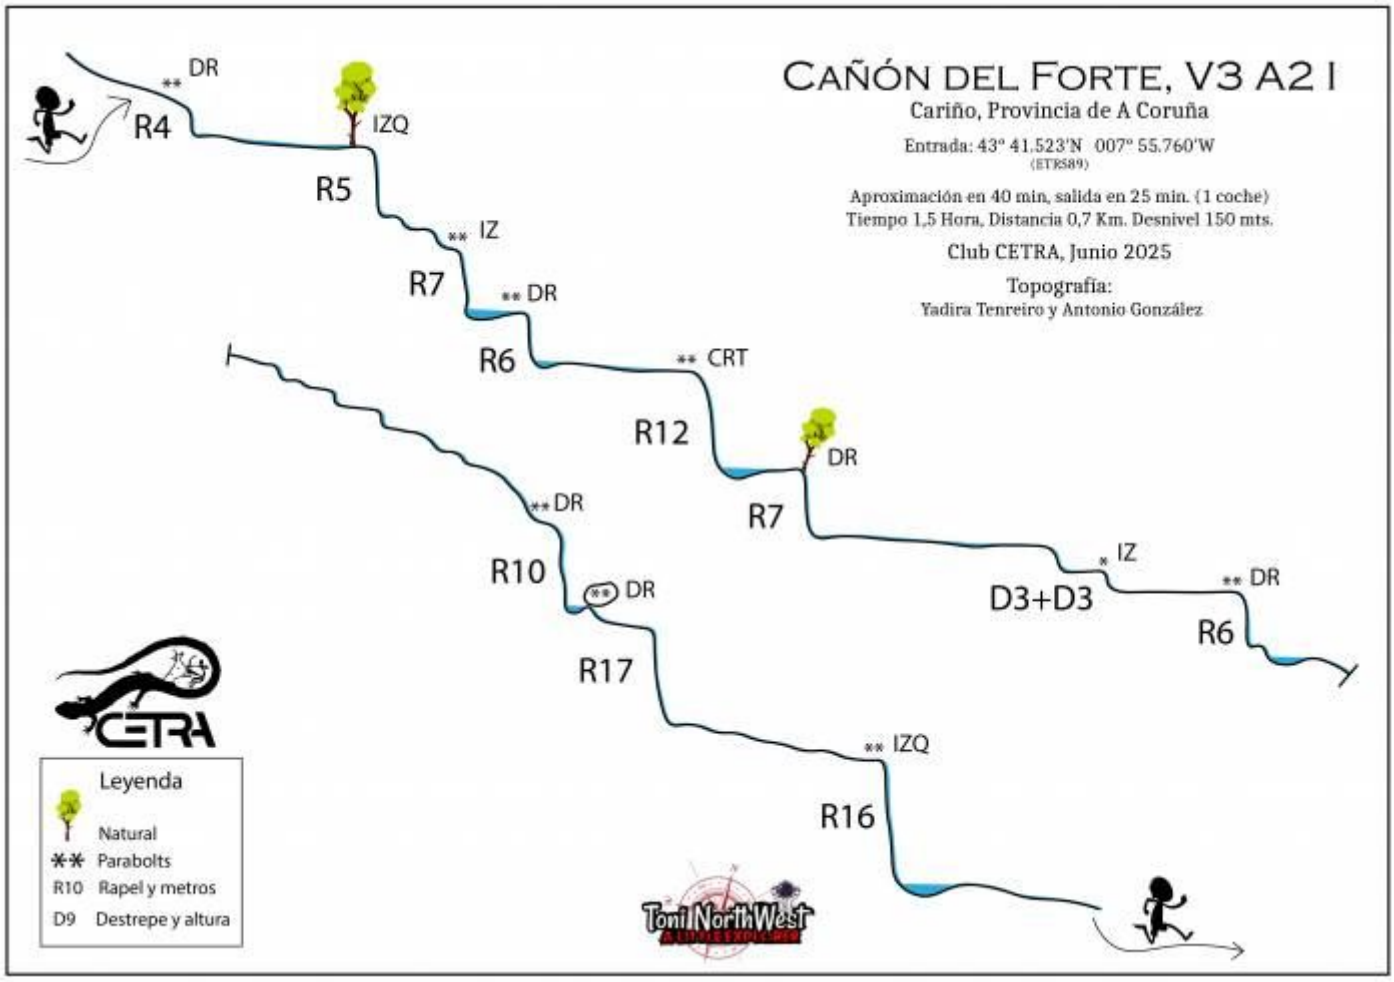

Tour:

Return: (machine translated)
At the end of the last rappel we follow the river for a few meters, looking out to the right side of the path that leads to the exit trail that we will follow to the road.
