Access: (machine translated)

Follow road no. 209 in the direction of Bohinjska Bistrica. Park 500m after a prominent building on the left-hand side of the road (open-air museum of the wooden cable car) on the left-hand side.

Approach: (machine translated)

Directly at the parking lot, a marked path leads in the direction of Rovtarica. Follow this path past the cable car mountain station until you reach a forest road which you follow eastwards to the stream.

Tour: (machine translated)

Many rappels. The first two rappels are from trees, the rest are glued anchors or chains. The water level can be easily checked from below - from the parking exit about 250 downstream to the bridge over the Blatnica. From the bridge it is only 3 minutes to the last waterfall of the gorge.
