Summary: (machine translated) Short but attractive canyon. Difficult to find access.
Hydrology:
Access: (machine translated) You Google Earth map in Gallery
Approach: (machine translated) The access is difficult to find without a local guide, a description can be found at the ropewiki link. In the meantime, you can apparently use a newly built slope for a good part of the access. At the houses at the beginning of the ascent, ask for a permit to climb - in Spanish!
Tour: (machine translated) See video and photos in Gallery.
Return: (machine translated) About 20 minutes after the last rapel, look for and find a path on the left bank that leads us - past a picnic area - back to the piste. Now up to the parking lot.
