Summary: (machine translated)
Short aquatic gorge (lower part of the rappel canyon Tapoume Verissimo)

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
By (shared) cab we drive from the village of Ribeira Grande up the valley of the same name, past Coculi with its large school to Boca de Ambas Ribeiras (ambas Ribeiras: both Ribeiras: R. Grande u. Ribeira Caibros). Here the car turns left from the main road and drives in southern direction up the valley of Caibros to the exit of the tarred road, possible also about 400 m further to a square sandy place, which the youth likes to use for bolting (about 440 m above sea level - about 2 km from Boca de Ambas Ribeiras).

Approach: (machine translated)
From the ball field we continue up the valley floor until we come to the canyon exit of Tarref d'Cima (large aqueduct with water tank). Here we climb the mule path on the orographic. right canyon rim steeply uphill, after reaching the ridge a little more moderate.Once the view opens right down into the canyon, before the path descends into the wide well-vegetated valley. On the left of the wall, a blue arrow points to the right into the streambed. We walk (carefully) downstream through the plantings and come to the concrete barrier that gives access to the canyon once you have carefully downclimbed on its right side.

Tour: (machine translated)
6 Minor rappel, walking and swimming passages.

Return: (machine translated)
At the canyon exit, follow the access path downstream and back to the ball field.
