Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Gully in which there is no possibility of combining cars. It is a one hour hike with some curious steps in which you can not fall.
The first rappel is the most interesting of all as it is 25m of overhang. Then it is a succession of rappels not in a row, some of them with intermediate skills.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We will be located in Redován, here we will park next to the cemetery.

Approach: (machine translated)
Following the marks of the PR we will go up to the Esparregueras peak, right next to it is the cave that we will "fly over".
