Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Vertical ravine of difficult access. Generally without water but can carry a trickle. Headwater unequipped during the nesting season, from December to July, so it will have to be re-equipped.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Beceite: road to les Pesqueres (sign). It goes up the Ulldemó river.
One car: shortly after leaving the village take the detour to the left to Arnes for 2kms, leave the river Ulldemó behind, 1km later turn right onto a track that goes uphill, and leave the car on the esplanade of the third zigzag.
Two cars: go back to the fork, and go towards La Pesquera about 2.5kms from the junction, you will find a parking lot on the right (on google maps P2 or P3 of Pesquera).

Approach: (machine translated)
With a car, we cross the field of olive trees to the exit of the ravine and take a path that surrounds the wall, in a couple of climbs we are planted at the top and you have to choose to enter here to do only the wall and follow the path to go to the top.
With two cars we leave the parking lot of the river in the direction of Peñagalera until we reach the crest, here on the left we will see the entrance to the ravine.

Tour: (machine translated)
The descent must be very attentive to the state of the facilities.

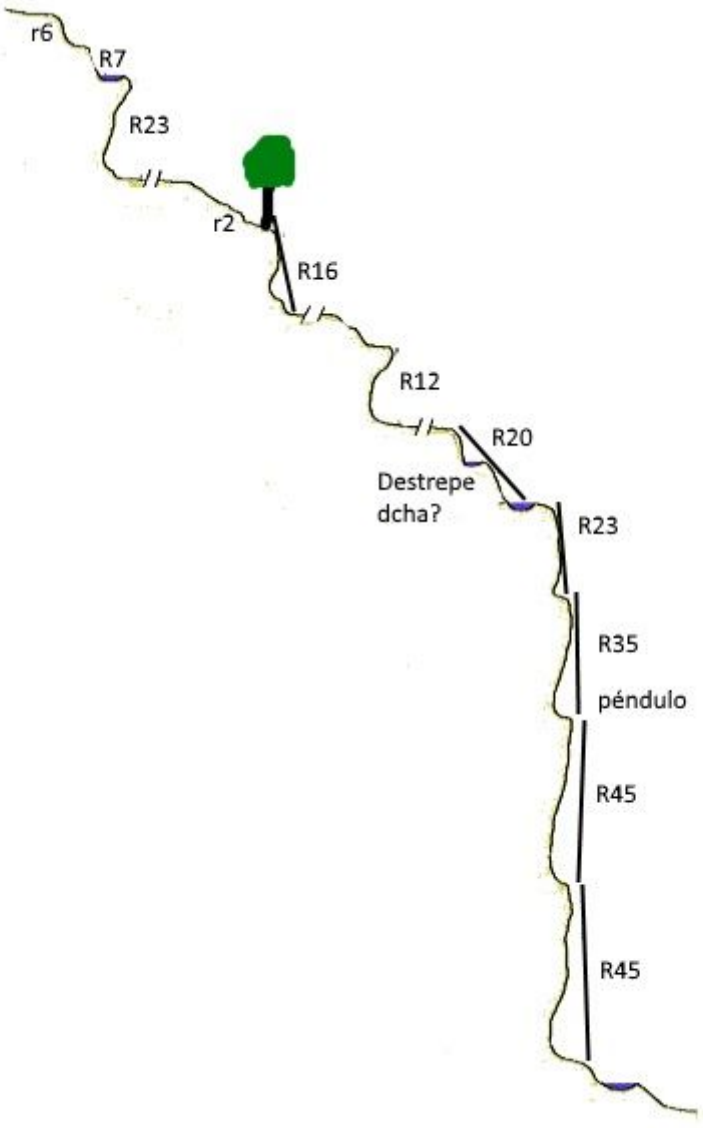

Return: (machine translated)
Follow the riverbed and cross the olive grove until you reach the track where you have parked.
