Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Spectacular vertical canyon, its 75m longest rappel over the cliff is amazing. Naturally it is not for beginners. Easy access and hard return but without difficulty, with only one vehicle.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Getting to La Victoria de Acentejo
On the freeway, exit 27, on the other side of the soccer field there is a service road, we follow it towards NE 300m until a little curve on the left with the restaurant La Sabina next to it. We park.

Approach: (machine translated)
We go back along the road towards SW about 400m to a track that goes to the right towards the head of our ravine.
Upon reaching a right turn in the track, we go straight ahead on a path that leaves us at the head of the ravine.

Tour:
Ver topo

Return: (machine translated)
We leave by the cliffs to the right about 300 to the Acentejo bank, here we have a climb of 10-15m that is with steel cable used in the area to go down to the beach. We will continue along the path that ascends to the equipped path where we will go to the left and takes us to the road, next to where we have parked.
