Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
It has an upper part that does not contribute much. The lower part consists of 5 rappels with a more or less long access but that can be useful to complete a day in the area.
Bring spare equipment because they sabotage the facilities from time to time.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We must be located in Collbató in the heart of Montserrat.
Once in the village we will go to the Cova de Salnitre to a picnic area near the Ermita La Salut where we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
We go down to the village to the street Pau Bertran to turn right on the Drecera from which a path goes up to the viewpoint of Far Gari. Follow the PR (white and yellow marks) flanking the wall to the dry stream.
Another option is to climb left to the Senyera below the Roca Lisa. There we turn right along the PR to also flank the wall to the torrent and the Font Seca.

Tour: (machine translated)
Easy, 5 rappels without great difficulty. A multitude of skills, many of them equipped with fixed rope.

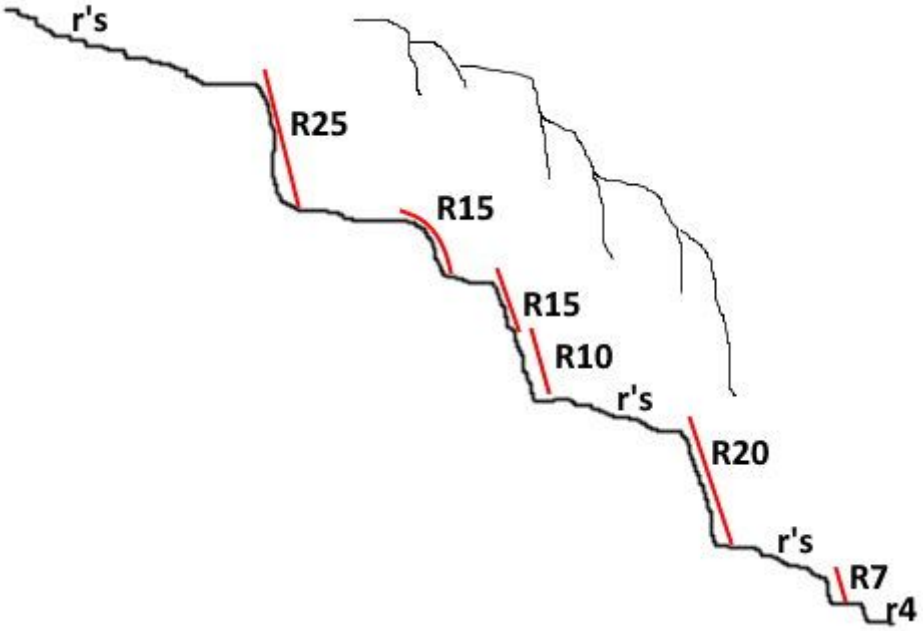

Return: (machine translated)
We will follow the gully after the last few steps up to a bridge to get out next to the hermitage of La Salut.
