Access: (machine translated)
On the NA178 towards Ochagavía, almost at km. 31 we have Gallués, we will continue a little more, 2 kms until Güesa where we park the car of return, near the bridge of Ripalda, since we return by here.
We will return to Gallués and we go towards Izal, after 3 km we have on the right the track that goes up to the hermitage of Ntra Sra de Arburúa, we continue until the village and at the end there is a track that goes up to the cross of Aldu, we will go up it until the upper hill where there is a place to park.

Approach: (machine translated)
We will continue along the track that goes around some meadows until we cross a stream, from here we will follow the stream until we reach the cliffs that are already glimpsed over the valley of Salazar.

Tour: (machine translated)
The waterfall and then we will go through the forest until we reach a track before reaching the Salazar.

Return: (machine translated)
To take the track we will have to go through the forest, on the orographic right, we will follow it to the south until Ripalda and from there to the bridge over the river, we will be next to the car.
