Summary: (machine translated)
Not very interesting canyon!
Upper part steep and quite watery, in the middle open canyon with water drainage, lower part then steeper again over the 40m high Cascata delle Plere/Piere

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Tolmezzo, take the SS52 towards Villa Santina. Before reaching the village, turn right towards Invilino and continue towards Verzegnis. After crossing the Fella, there is a parking lot on the right (signs Cascata Plera, war bunker)
Parking entry: Continue to Verzegnis and follow the road towards Sella Chianzutan until a road branches off to the right towards Assais/Dassais. Follow this road to its exit at a large building in a meadow saddle.

Approach: (machine translated)
Follow the wide path between the buildings towards the canyon. The path leads down to a spring catchment. Get in there.

Tour: (machine translated)
Secured to trees. The water drainage in the middle of the canyon takes a good 3/4 of the water flow. If the last waterfall has plenty of water, the upper part is not safe to walk on.
You can also only walk the lower part with the large waterfall. A path leads from the lower parking lot to the water drainage.

Return: (machine translated)
In case of lack of water in the lower part, get off at the water drainage and follow the path back to the lower car otherwise continue along the gorge until the last waterfall and from there follow the path further to the car
