Summary: (machine translated) The canyon is divided into 3 parts, between which there are long running sections on the adjacent hiking trail. Nice jumps and some rappels in the first and third parts.
Hydrology:
Access: (machine translated) Main road into Kleinwalsertal. In Riezlern, cross the bridge and turn right towards Ifenbahn/Schwarzwassertal. Drive uphill for about 150 m, then turn right to the sports field. The road goes downhill again. Park at the sports field.
Approach: (machine translated) Follow the hiking trail along the stream until you reach the road. Entry here for the upper part. Entry to the lower section: walk about 1 km along the hiking trail on the orographic\left side of the stream until the stream cuts in again.
Tour: (machine translated) 2 parts are above the parking lot, the last part about 1 km below the parking lot. You normally get out after the natural bridge. However, if there is little water, 2 abseils can be made after the confluence. (Not particularly rewarding).
Return: (machine translated) Follow the hiking trail on the orographic left back to the car

Reports:

2025-08-17 | Fabian Preiß | ★★☆☆ | 📖★★★★ | ⚓★★★★ | 🌊 Low | 🍏 Completed

Very little water, we were still able to jump a lot. Overall, however, rather short and lots of walking passages between the parts. (machine translated)

2025-06-16 | Sandra Kistner | ★★☆☆ | 📖★★★★ | ⚓★★★★ | 🌊 Low | 🍏 Completed

Everything OK in the 2 upper parts. Lower part not climbed, rain the day before Photo last Aberseiler 2nd part (machine translated)

2024-07-23 | Mario Rojer | ★★☆☆ | 📖★★★★ | ⚓★★★★ | 🌊 Low | 🍏 Completed

Ascent at very low water level. Rappels were mostly dry, as the waterfalls dripped rather than flowed. Jumps are mostly possible. In part two, which crosses the ascent route, there was minimal ground contact when jumping. Still easy to walk on. Anchors were easily accessible and intact. (machine translated)
