Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Or simply San Pedro is a dry canyon except after rains, with a great vertical of 70m split and a lush environment.
With a 4×4 vehicle we can park at the head of the ravine.
Since it is located in a protected area, it is necessary to verify if a permit is required.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Bcos Arafo area
In Arafo, we will take the TF523, Teide road.
Shortly before p.k. 8 we have a track on the left (return) a few meters we can leave the return vehicle on the right. About 350m before there is a sharp right turn with a place to park on the left.
With the access vehicle we will continue climbing up to the p.k. 17, past the viewpoint of Montaña Colorada, we have a track on the left. Here we can park or if we have a 4×4 we can follow the track for 2kms to the trailhead.
Another option is to continue along the road to take the TF24 and go almost to the Mirador de Chimague, p.k. 28.8. 28.8, a right turn where we can park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Along the 4×4 track, up to the head of the ravine or down the Ismaña mountain trail to the track.

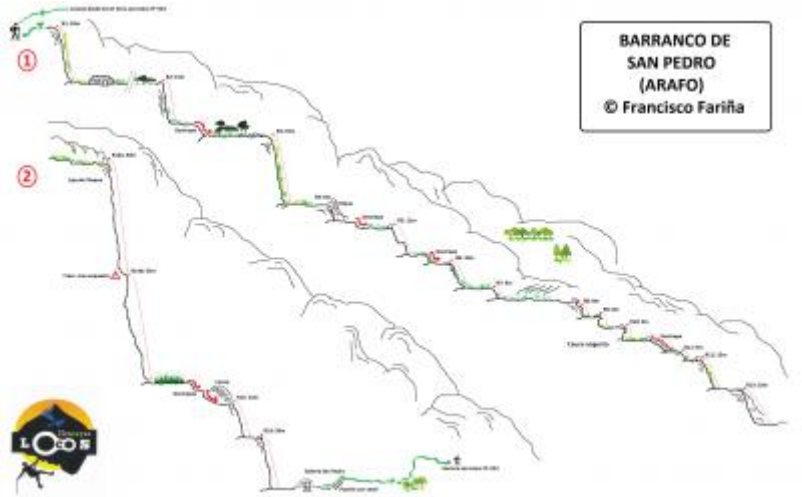

Tour: (machine translated)
See mole

Return: (machine translated)
When we arrive at the gallery, at the caves, we leave to the left going uphill a little to a water channel, on the orographic left we will continue along the descending path next to the channel (be careful with the path), after a kilometer we arrive at a horizontal path to the left that leads us to a track that later leads us down to the road.
