Summary: (machine translated)
Open canyon, adventure terrain, with a long access unless we go with 4×4 and an even harder return, but the environment is worth it. The end of the canyon is spectacular in the Forat de Guinot (Sallent dels Coloms). For many a canyon of collecting, for others an adventure canyon.

Access: (machine translated)
Bcos de la Terreta
By the N230 towards Pont de Suert
At p.k. 101, just before the detour to Arén, we have the detour to the right to Orrit and Sapeira. At 3 kilometers from Sapeira, in a left curve of the road, there is a track in front of Esplugafreda.
When arriving there we will continue by the track towards the Tossal de l'Abadia and the Tossal Ras... About 7km. Between the two there is a track to the right towards the back, in pretty bad condition, so if we have 4×4 we can continue and if not we will have to park here.
With 4×4 we will follow the whole track until the end almost to the abandoned village of Espills.

Approach: (machine translated)
As with 4×4 we must follow the entire track to the end, then it becomes a path that goes to Espills, soon we will pass just by the headwaters, a dry creek where we will soon find the first rappel.

Tour: (machine translated)
See mole

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel we can exit to the left by one of the streams that lead us up to Espills, broken terrain, very dressed and not at all comfortable. Once up we will go along the Espills path towards the track.
