Summary: (machine translated)
Hiking and rappel canyon

Hydrology:

Access:

Approach:

Tour: (machine translated)
Option 1 Drive to the village by car.

Option 2: Take the hiking trail starting at the canyon exit upwards, through the canyon, then keep right to walk up the other tributary until you reach the road via a dirt road, which you follow always keeping left, over a staircase over a ridge and then left over a paved road to the streambed.

Option 3: Hike up the trail and walk up the canyon as you please, turn around and enjoy the 2 rappels.

If you start at the given coordinates, follow the streambed along the village. You soon come to a corridor (hiking trail sign), which splits after a narrow section. Turn right downhill here.
The first rappel (improvise or take the bolt strap at the top left without a maillon) already offers a view of the road below.
You end up in a vault with many holes. Then second belay on the right about 20 m into the pool.

Short tour to shorten the day. Beautiful hiking gorge at the start, original finish. The pool at the exit can be avoided with skill orographic left. (machine translated)
