Summary: (machine translated) Hiking and rappel canyon
Hydrology:
Access:
Approach:
Tour: (machine translated) Option 1 Drive to the village by car. Option 2: Take the hiking trail starting at the canyon exit upwards, through the canyon, then keep right to walk up the other tributary until you reach the road via a dirt road, which you follow always keeping left, over a staircase over a ridge and then left over a paved road to the streambed. Option 3: Hike up the trail and walk up the canyon as you please, turn around and enjoy the 2 rappels. If you start at the given coordinates, follow the streambed along the village. You soon come to a corridor (hiking trail sign), which splits after a narrow section. Turn right downhill here. The first rappel (improvise or take the bolt strap at the top left without a maillon) already offers a view of the road below. You end up in a vault with many holes. Then second belay on the right about 20 m into the pool.
