Resumen: (traducción alternativa)
An impressive canyon, featuring the beautiful Berglistüberl Waterfall.

Hidrología: (traducción alternativa)
After the snow melts, July–October.
Call the power plant operator for more information! The number is posted on a sign at the exit of Part 4.

Acceso: (traducción alternativa)
Coming from the A3 highway, take Exit 44 (Niederurnen). Then drive to the end of the valley toward the Klausen Pass.
At the very first bend of the Klausen Pass, turn left, drive past the large reservoir of the hydroelectric power plant, and park your car shortly after the intersection with the Fätschbach, 1.3 km from the Klausen Pass road. Take the second car to drive up the Klausen Pass. Just as the road levels out, you'll see the water intake on your left.
Park in a large parking lot 350 m before the water intake.
If you'd like to skip the less interesting lower section, park your first car at the 5th haipin bend near Bergli, where a sign points to the Berglistüber Waterfall.

Acceso: (traducción alternativa)
From the upper parking lot, a narrow path leads over a fence to the water pipeline that crosses the canyon. From there, you climb up the right side of the streambed.

Recorrido: (traducción alternativa)
The canyon is divided into four parts.
Part 1: Right at the start, there is a series of beautiful jumps of up to 8 m into very deep pools. With the exception of the last waterfall, all of them must be jumped—there are no anchors.
This is followed by a long walk (20–30 min) along the riverbed to the second part.
Part 2: This part begins with a few small jumps and continues with beautiful rappelling spots into pools of great depth.
After this part, there's another descent and a walk (10–20 min.).
Part 3: Here you'll find the very beautiful and photogenic "Berglistüber" waterfall.
After this part, you have the option to switch to the hiking trail or continue descending to the very end.
Part 4: A few more rappelling spots, interspersed with descents and hikes all the way to the very end.

Regreso: (traducción alternativa)
After Part 4, continue on until you reach the parking lot.
If you get off at Berglistüber (the exit of Part 3), it's a 5-minute walk to the parking lot.

Added new bolts to some mounts. On the C43, the excess thread still needs to be cut off with an angle grinder.
