| Resumen: (traducción alternativa) Forest canyon with rappel. | | |
| Hidrología: | | |
| Acceso: (traducción alternativa) Coming from St. Johann or Ellmau/Kirchberg, cross Kitzbühel in a southerly direction, past the tennis stadium and then turn right at the next traffic circle. Follow the signs in the direction of "Hotel Hahenhof". Follow this road to its exit. This is also the start and end point of the tour. There is a small power station and a fountain here. You may be able to park on a small steep path leading to the stream (max. 2 cars) or ask at the hotel. | | |
| Acceso: (traducción alternativa) The path begins directly at the fountain and winds steeply up in serpentines (direction SW) to the mountain inn "Einsiedelei". From there, follow the forest road to the south (left), which leads to a path that leads directly to a large boulder barrier (dam) (sign "Danger of life"). Entry and first rappel directly from the bedload barrier. | | |
| Recorrido: (traducción alternativa) Conglomerate gorge in the forest, which is very slippery in places. Attention at the second rappel point: the rope pull-off can cause problems here. | | |
| Regreso: (traducción alternativa) From the stream directly to the car. | | |

Good water level after the rain. Very slippery canyon in beautiful red rock. However, a lot of wood in the canyon, you can get through but already disturbing. The first 3 rappels top new with chain anchors, but then only old single hooks or chain anchors. On the last 17m rappel a new anchor was placed on the far left. (But could also be bypassed on the right) (traducción alternativa)
