Resumen: (traducción alternativa)
Upper part of the well-known Rio dell' Ambruseit. At the beginning some nice rappels then longer downclimbs/walking sections to the entry in the lower part.

Hidrología:

Acceso: (traducción alternativa)
Parking lot below as with the inferiore part.
Take the shuttle car and drive up towards Lovea. Park the vehicle at the parking lot for hikers at Rif Monte Sernio (approx. 500m before the parking lot for the inferiore section).

Acceso: (traducción alternativa)
Follow CAI trail no. 416 (Rif Monte Sernio). This leads continuously uphill until after about 50 minutes CAI path no. 455 (Pra di Lunze) branches off to the right downhill.
Follow this downhill and you will be in the streambed for a few minutes.

Recorrido: (traducción alternativa)
Bypass 5m to the left or on the left bank using steep footpaths.
5m left (old anchor)
35m chain anchor left
Jump 3m or rappel right at the tree
Slide 4m
20m right (2 steps) 2 old and 1 new anchor in brittle rock
12m right
8m right
12m left
Then approx. 400m downclimb and stream walk
30m left
150m stream walking
Start Inferior part

Regreso: (traducción alternativa)
Follow the inferiore part, or theoretically you can get off here and return to the parking lot

For the first time we climbed the upper part and the lower part in one and replaced a few slings from the old stock. Walking passages after the 1st part to the entry into the 2nd part are relatively long, otherwise a really nice tour. It is advisable to take a few pieces of rope with you to possibly exchange some more old slings. (traducción alternativa)

Today I climbed the upper part for the first time. Nice rappel at the beginning, partly brittle rock, then just longer downclimbing / stream hiking to the "known lower part". (traducción alternativa)
