Resumen: (traducción alternativa)
Not very interesting canyon, longer running sections at the beginning. The exit is certainly suitable for people who have never been canyoning before.

Hidrología: (traducción alternativa)
Medium-sized catchment area, mostly throughout the summer.

Acceso: (traducción alternativa)
Park at the bottom in Montreux, unless you also want to do the upper part.

Acceso: (traducción alternativa)
There is a hiking trail along the canyon. If you want to start at the top, enter at 810m, otherwise at P. 537

Recorrido: (traducción alternativa)
Two parts with about 4 rappels each, in between a very long walking passage where it is best to return to the hiking trail. Upper part hardly worthwhile. In the lower part there is sometimes a 5m jump.

Regreso: (traducción alternativa)
You can get back quickly via the hiking trail.

Since we live in Montreux, we just had to do it. We did it after work. We were pleasantly surprised. We exited the canyon at the bridge piers, then re-entered it at the trailhead to tackle the last two beautiful waterfalls that lead into town. The ending was magnificent, with the city lights illuminating the waterfalls as night fell. (The last two rappels were from a tree.) The canyon itself is fun! Waterfalls, jumps, and a great setting—it's an easy and quick canyon to hike from the Montreux train station :) (traducción alternativa)

I did it once because I live nearby, the lower passage is nice but very short. (traducción alternativa)
