Resumen: (traducción alternativa) Upper part of the Usedi, many diagonal ropes and narrow parts. Take care, with a lot of water a very strenuous tour because 800hm without possible exit.
Hidrología: (traducción alternativa) It is best to wait a week after a big storm.
Acceso: (traducción alternativa) Pass Chironico and park at Grumo.
Acceso: (traducción alternativa) Follow the hiking trail up to A Garnei and then take the only path that leads down into the valley. The trail is sometimes quite overgrown. At p. 1794 the path crosses a stream, which is the start of the tour.
Recorrido: (traducción alternativa) At the beginning there are many long slabs where you often have to look for the anchors. After that, the rappels become narrow, without the canyon being cut much. Later, a few tributaries from the right, and more and more a grandiose canyon.
Regreso: (traducción alternativa) Orographically take the entry of the Inferiore on the right, or continue with inferiore to the road.

Canyon still snow-covered with lots of névé. We'll probably have to wait at least another 2-3 weeks... Otherwise, the equipment is still in place. It's possible to bypass the very high abseils at the start by cutting through the forest. (traducción alternativa)

We went in the day after a storm, and arrived at the start of the Inferiore pretty battered (bloody hands just from holding the ropes). Certainly more fun with less water. But otherwise a great experience. (traducción alternativa)
