Resumen: (traducción alternativa)

Beautiful canyon, not too vertical.

Hidrología:

Acceso: (traducción alternativa)

A5 Torino-Aosta highway; from Turin take the Pont St Martin exit or from Aosta the Verrès exit. Take the SS 26 to the village of Hône after crossing the Dora Baltea and continue up the Ayasse valley for 6 km on the SR2. At the end of Pontboset (stay on the main road, do not enter the hamlet), turn left towards Frontiere-Crest. Cross the bridge over the Ayasse torrent, continue, then go steeply downhill (signs Frontière) to the exit of the road to the parking lot overlooking the torrent.

Acceso: (traducción alternativa)

Go up the tarmac road and after the three hairpins turn left onto the road to Crest. Follow the road and at the 3rd bend (right turn) take a good path to the left into the woods (signs: Orrido di Ratus, percorso alto). Continue on a good path that overlooks the breezy canyon that joins the stream (between a sloping C40 and a C20 with a basin). Cross it and climb up a small path on the right bank, which is quite steep. Very quickly, at a small right pin and a small plain, turn left horizontally (there is no longer a path) to reach the starting point, which is actually the tributary on the D bank of the Brenve and offers a nice little starting basin above the C50.

Recorrido: (traducción alternativa)

Jump, rappel or slide into the beautiful initial pool and then a 50 m long rappel introduced into the real Brenve torrent. A spectacular environment where easy slides and beautiful de-escalations follow one another until the last three pools, which offer a strong thrill on the descent. The last one in particular: deep, large, enclosed by overhanging walls, offers the possibility of a spectacular jump (about 13 m) or a magnificent rappel.

Some areas outside the high water, few loopholes.

Numerous washbasins.

Canyons with a large and high catchment area.

A fairly short canyon with obviously considerable mountain potential...

Slippery canyon, very beautiful surroundings, crystal clear water.

Regreso: (traducción alternativa)

From the final basin, it is barely downhill for a path on the left, then a path and finally the right PR (Orrido di Ratus, percorso basso).it quickly leads to the hamlet of Frontiere and the car.
