Résumé: (traduction alternative)
Similar to the Cavorques, it is a canyon with two parts, the first one more rugged and the second one more vertical. Unless they have reinstalled the gully it was a bit precarious, with the first part in natural and the second part with quite old/austere but functional facilities.

Hydrologie:

Accès: (traduction alternative)
Access Circ Sallent
We have two possible accesses:
By the C17 to Sant Quirze de Besora and then to Vidrà by the BV5227.
Or from Olot by the C152 to Presses and turn on the GIV5226 to Sant Privat d'en Bas.
The combination of cars is really very long and then go to look for it also takes us a long time being the best option to take a single car even if you have to walk a lot.
Access Circ Sallent by Vidrà
From Vidrà we will follow the road to Ciuret, we will pass it and almost reaching the Coll de Ciuret the road turns left in a sharp bend with a track that goes straight ahead, we will take it towards "el Sallent" and "Pla Traver".
Once in the pass we take the track on the right towards Pla Traver or a track in worse condition to "El Sallent".
Access Circ Sallent by Sant Privat
From Sant Privat follow the signs to Salt del Sallent to Pla d'en Xurri.

Approche: (traduction alternative)
Approach to Hortals, PlaTraver, Cavorques Sup and Inf, Sallent and Ginebrar ravines.
From "El Sallent" we can go along the track of the cirque to the head of Salt del Sallent and then to the lower part of Ginebrar.
We can also go up to Pla Traver and take the track that goes along the top of the cirque and after passing the Hortals and Cavorques we reach the top.
From Pla d'en Xurri we will continue towards the viewpoint of Salt and take the path that goes to the right and goes up Escales towards El Sallent.

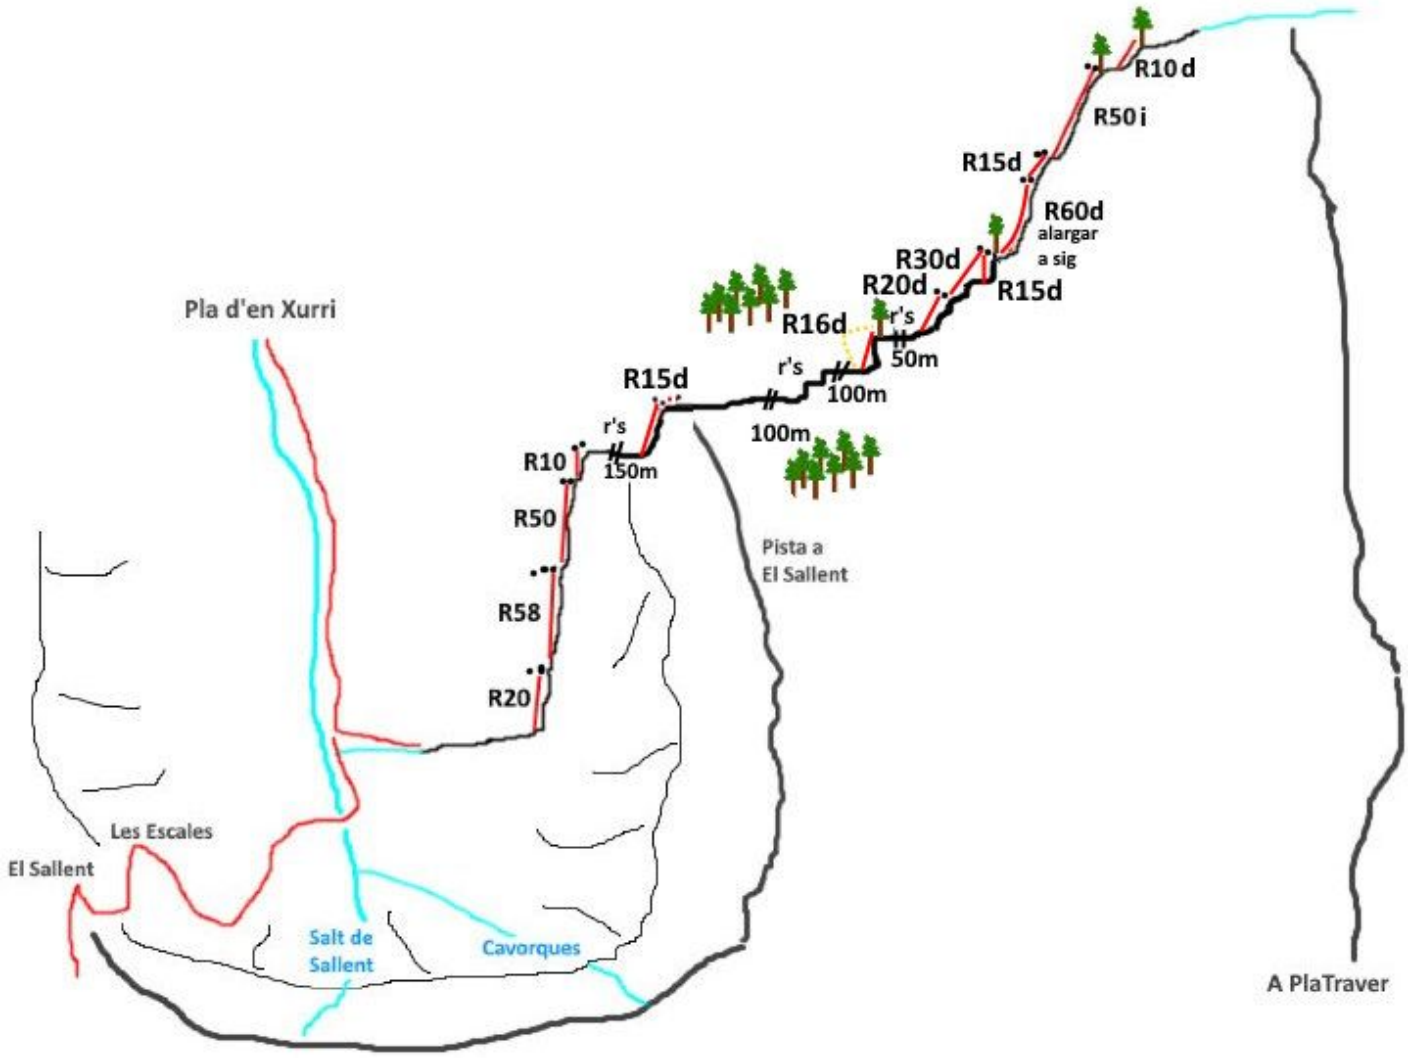

Tour: (traduction alternative)
The first part is more open, with very steep natural rappels.
After passing through the track we reach the part of the cirque that is more vertical without being as vertical as Salt or Cavorques.

Retour: (traduction alternative)
Depending on where we have the car we will go down to Pla d'en Xurri through the path or we will turn left to go up through les Escales to El Sallent.
