Résumé: (traduction alternative)
Gorge not too tight and with open sections in which we will have to walk. In spring it has a nice flow to enjoy, then the top dries out and there is a thread at the bottom.

Hydrologie:

Accès: (traduction alternative)
We have to get to Col de Nargó on the C14 towards Seu d'Urgell.
If we have two cars, with the access car we will go to Organyá, in the center of the village before the right curve we have a detour to the left to Cabó. We go through here. At the exit of the village, about 500m we will have a detour to the left to Font Bordonera/Fenollet/... we will take it and we will arrive to the village of Montanisell.
With the return car or a single car, from Coll de Nargó we will turn off by the L511 to Isona. At pk 37 we turn right to Sallent and soon we get into a track on the right to park.

Approche: (traduction alternative)
From Montanisell we will take the track that goes south, towards the river. When it turns to the east under the castle, we will continue straight ahead and go down a path towards the river.
From the return car we will have a long climb along tracks until we almost reach Montanisell. It is a long and hard approach, if you choose this option it is better to take the track because any description can lead to confusion by the number of tracks and trails along the route. As a reference we must follow the Camí del Pui until almost Sant Jaume, here we will leave this track to climb a nice winding path through the rocky outcrops behind to some fields right next to the track that leads to Montanisell.

Tour: (traduction alternative)
Open areas with others more embedded with 10 rappels of up to 15m without major difficulty.

Retour: (traduction alternative)
We arrive at a track that we can take on both sides. On the right it takes us to the small road to Sallent and on the left to the Cami del Pui track.
