Résumé: (traduction alternative)
Small, mostly narrow canyon with repeated views of the sea.

Hydrologie:

Accès: (traduction alternative)
Car conversion makes sense, even if the parking lot at the entry can ultimately only be accessed with 4WD.

Approche: (traduction alternative)
From the upper parking lot (4WD) turn left around the stone stable building and immediately afterwards right along the slope down to the large pool.

Tour: (traduction alternative)
After about 100m in the open meadow valley, the canyon begins with the highest rappel (13m). Then one rappel follows the next, interrupted only by a short widening of the canyon.

Retour: (traduction alternative)
After reaching the cross stream at the bottom of the valley, follow it and finally turn right to the car.

Or take an orographic left path back to the entry point (Bromirakis)

We wandered around for quite a while trying to find the access without having to switch routes. The easiest way is to head straight up to the saddle (on the 4x4 access road). It’s actually a pretty nice stream—at the beginning, there were even a few drops of water. (traduction alternative)
