Résumé: (traduction alternative)
River walk without rappel

Hydrologie:

Accès: (traduction alternative)
We leave the Inntalautobahn (A12) via exit 1 Kufstein Nord. At the traffic circle we take the (3rd) exit onto the B175 heading NE. 450 m further on we cross the Sparchenbach, but then continue for another 570 m to turn right into Kaiserbachstraße at the exit of the forest. 700 m further on - before reaching the bridge over the Sparchenbach - we come to a parking lot for hikers who want to explore the Kaisertal. We park our car here.

Approche: (traduction alternative)
From the parking lot, we cross the road towards the bridge and then take the path up into the Kaisertal valley. After an ascent of around 25 minutes (approx. 150 vertical meters), we turn right towards the Tischofer cave. A little later, shortly before the first right-hand serpentine, we turn left onto a path that takes us across the meadow to a water pipe that leads - almost flat - into the valley of the Sparchenbach stream.
If the prohibition of passage, which apparently only serves as an exclusion of liability, hinders you, do not turn off the main path towards Kaisertal, but continue uphill, past the Veitenhof inn to the hamlet with the Pfandl inn. A few meters after Gasthof Pfandl, a slope branches off to the right down to Sparchenbach (towards Klaushütte).
No matter which path we take, we reach the Sparchenbach and can descend into the streambed before reaching the water drainage.

Tour: (traduction alternative)
River walk in an initially relatively open valley until the river increasingly carves its way between towering walls. A 3m waterfall invites you to jump, but can also be bypassed.

Retour: (traduction alternative)
Left up to the road bridge and over the bridge to the car.
