Résumé: (traduction alternative)
Similar to the Pescone - less fun - more technical.

Hydrologie: (traduction alternative)
Dangerousness: Very average, paths cross in the second half.

Accès: (traduction alternative)

Approche: (traduction alternative)
From the parking lot, turn left and follow Via Ronco for a short block. The path leads between the houses and follows the red and white markings. First you reach Alpe Selvia in the forest, then Alpe Bertogna (584 m a.s.l.). Turn right and walk to the stream.

Tour: (traduction alternative)
A first abseil leads to an area with small slides, a small ledge secured on the right bank with equipment from the SCVV... A large sloping area with a slide on the right bank and a belay on the right bank or a direct rappel on a bush on the left bank. A large waterfall and then the last waterfall. The chute is easily passable even at high water levels, first with legs spread apart, then with opposite foot/back positions.

Retour: (traduction alternative)
From the foot of the last waterfall, follow the stream, walk about twenty meters past the bridge and take the stone steps on the right bank.

Once you reach Alpe Bertogna, follow the trail for about 10 more minutes to the entry. The belay stations are a bit old, but there’s at least one anchor wherever needed. Everything’s fine—a cool start and a cool final rappel. (traduction alternative)

In the end I consider it the best route in the lake especially for the more continuous verticals. The water is little but if done with the right flow this canyon mustbe beautiful, especially the cadxata with goulotte and tail divcavallo (traduction alternative)
