| Accès: (traduction alternative)Coming from Chur, we turn right at the end of the highway onto the B19 and drive via Flims, Laax, Ilanz in the direction of Disentis/Muster. 6.3 km after Ilanz we turn right off the B19 and drive up to Waltensburg/Vuorz.Here we buy a "Pickerl" for the toll road up to Val Ladral at the town hall. As the town hall only has very limited opening hours, contact them as early as possible (email: kontakt@waltensburg-vuorz.ch or phone: +41(0)819362000). Costs CHF 25 (2013) or CHF 200 fine. Via Andiast - turn left at the fire station - we now head up into Val Ladral. We park our car at the exit of the slope (1600m altitude).Alternatively, access by bike is also possible ( http://www.laval.ch/files/Downloads/Mountainbikekarte.pdf ). |                                           |                                             |
| Approche: (traduction alternative)We climb up the orographic right-hand slope without a path until we reach a path coming up from the left at an altitude of around 1900m. We cross "our" stream at an altitude of around 2000m by following it uphill to the right. Now follow the stream uphill without a path to the entry point at 2040m.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                           |                                             |
