Résumé: (traduction alternative)
Rappel canyon with cave-like passage

Hydrologie:

Accès: (traduction alternative)
From Ioannina, take the A2 highway in the direction of Thessaloniki and take exit 6a (M. Peristeri/ Votonosi/ Chrysovitsa). Then follow the road to Paliochori on the right.

Approche: (traduction alternative)
From the asphalt road, turn right onto the slope and follow it to the second hairpin (right). An indistinct path descends to the stream.

Tour: (traduction alternative)
The tour begins with short rappels, which can be done dry or in water. A headlamp is an advantage in the dark part. There are no jumps or slides, the tour itself is very slippery. The cave part is beautiful. 2 rappels in the dark part.

Retour: (traduction alternative)
When the canyon opens up, you come to a concrete wall, after which a dirt road begins about 25 m to the right, which you follow. At the first junction turn right up to the road in about 30 - 40 minutes.

On the 1st higher rappel, the amount of water tripled. No idea why. The amount of water was not a problem, but a bit scary.... (traduction alternative)
