An enjoyable canyon, with a few scenic spots and nice rappels. Unfortunately no jumps :(Quite a lot of rubbish has accumulated in some spots, please take out with you what you can.

A pleasant surprise, ideal for rainy days. Anchors always present where needed, doubles only on the highest rappel. After the end of the main fording (520m) there is nothing more, it is worth going out as soon as possible. (traduction alternative)

Second ascent of the canyon, all anchors were still in order. (traduction alternative)
