Accès: (traduction alternative)
We'll need to head toward the area between Poyatos and Las Majadas via the CUV9113 road.
From Cuenca, we'll head north toward Villalba de la Sierra and shortly after, we'll take the turnoff toward Las Majadas.
From Cañamares, take the CM210 and turn toward Fuertescusa/Poyatos; pass the Cañamares swimming area on your left, continue on, and go through the charming village of Fuertescusa with its "Asalto al Castillo K2-K4" via ferrata.
Shortly before reaching Poyatos, near the La Serranía campground, take the road that branches off to the right (toward Tragacete); From here, drive about 10 km until you pass the Tejadillos Hostel; then continue right for another 4 km until you reach a very sharp left-hand hairpin turn (exit from the ravine); park your car at the bottom of this turn for the return trip.
Continue along the road for a couple more kilometers until you reach a right turn-off for Fuente de la Tía Perra; 2 km later, you'll find the Fuente picnic area, where you can park.
From Las Majadas, head toward the Las Majadas campground. At the campground turnoff, pass another trail on the right and continue straight ahead. After a few kilometers, you'll pass the Hosquillo turnoff (on the right), and shortly after that, you'll see the turnoff for Fuente on your left.

Approche: (traduction alternative)
From the picnic area it is immediate.
If we park below we will have to go up the path to the left orographic of the stream that goes up to the picnic area.

Tour: (traduction alternative)
Wooded, fresh and generally dry. Four rappels and a few cliffs to initiate in canyoning.

Retour: (traduction alternative)
If we have parked at the picnic area, when we reach the tributary on the left we will look for the path that goes there to climb up to the picnic area.
If we have parked below, we will go out to the left to take the path to go down to the road.
