Breve ma di grande soddisfazione. Gli ancoraggi sono ancora molto scarni, alcuni in pessimo stato. Aggiungere ancora qualche ancoraggio nuovo può essere una buona idea. Abbiamo aggiunto alcune informazioni alla scheda di opencanyon. Oggi molto scivoloso in alcuni punti.

This fun and beautiful canyon deserves a topo so I made one. In my opinion it is a beautiful line with a spectacular finish. A full on trip that combines high flow and vertical drops. I have made a topo after our trip in September which was checked by Pepijn on the 15th. It was all done from memory so the pitch lengths might be a bit off! If you have any comments on the topo please let me know so I can update it.

We started jus above the bridge. We think the water is quite low now, and it could probably be done with quite a bit more water. It would then be quiet a serious undertaking, since you have to cross the flow a couple of times, and would have to swim some technical passages. We added 3 more bolts on top of what the other team did a couple weeks ago. All in all a pretty awesome canyon. Water level photo is just above the bridge

A very beautiful alpine canyon in Ticino with massive pools—the kind you wouldn’t expect at this altitude. The canyon is narrow in places and has plenty of water. Today, due to weeks of dry weather, the water level was perfect for a hike—the canyon always has a lot of water. We had to drill 5 new anchors in the canyon because some of the very, very old anchors had been knocked loose or were too rusted. It felt as though no one had hiked this canyon in 20 years. A hike through this canyon should be planned as a serious undertaking. Warning: no cell service! The final rappel is divided into 25m and 80m sections. (traduzione alternativa)
