Sintesi: (traduzione alternativa)
If there is enough water, fun canyon with many jumps and slides down to Vesubie.

Idrologia:

Accesso: (traduzione alternativa)
From Nice, head north on the N 202 towards Digne. After 20 km, turn right into the Vésubie valley. Continue on the D 2565 for a further 8 km (approximately) until an iron footbridge for pedestrians crosses the Vésubie on the right. A few meters further on, the lower vehicle can be parked on the hillside next to the road.
Continue with the second vehicle until shortly before St Jean la Riviere, the D 19 climbs at an acute angle to the right. Follow the D 19 for approx. 2.5 km to the hamlet of Calencon, where you can park after the houses.

Avvicinamento: (traduzione alternativa)
From the parking lot (440 m above sea level), a small path leads down to the stream on the right. For nature conservation reasons, it is forbidden to enter the upper, open part of the streambed. However, there is a well-trodden path throughout, secured with wire ropes and steps where necessary. Entry is directly above the actual gorge.

Giro: (traduzione alternativa)
Attractive fun and jumping canyon as long as it has running water. Many jumps and well-equipped abseiling points. The highest waterfall can be split to the right using a hanging stand.
Below this waterfall, the Canal de la Vésubie crosses the gorge. There is an escape route to the left here. Below there are 3-4 more abseils and a final jump. Exit to the left before reaching the bottom of the Vésubie gorge.

Ritorno: (traduzione alternativa)
Do not go all the way down to the Vesubie (!), but 10 m above on the left along the slope to the aforementioned iron footbridge (last insured) over the Vésubie and then right to the vehicle parked below.

We went inside after the rain two days ago. It worked out perfectly. There was running water and plenty of opportunities to jump. All the stations were in perfect condition. We finished in 1 hour and 10 minutes. (traduzione alternativa)
