Automatisch importiert von Descente-Canyon.com für Canyon Tramouillon (inférieur) Même remarque que pour la partie supérieure, ça avait l'air gros débit et on s'est dit que ça faisait pas très canyon à guides dans ces conditions ! Beau canyon mais pas facile de se repérer avec le topo qu'on avait… pas mal plus long que la première partie, le froid a commencé à devenir problématique à la fin. Comme la première partie c'était très glissant donc a pris quelques zipettes. Mais c'était chouette. Fait sans navette, la marche retour se fait sans trop de problème en RG en suivant la route puis en coupant droit avant le village pour récupérer la route d'au dessus puis le sentier pour shunter les épingles. We combined the lower section with the other upper section on the same day. You do have to move the car, though, so you can't do the whole thing in one go. The first part is more of a river walk with lots of downclimbs, and I'd already figured the canyon was more of a collector's item. Toward the exit, though, it gets better, and there are a few nice rappelling spots right in a row. There's even a jump spot where a few climbing ropes are strung up. The pool was very shallow when we were there, though, so be careful. (traduzione alternativa)
