Sintesi:
It is a canyon with a constant water flow, though reduced during the summer months.
Despite the long and steep approach (about 1 hour 30 minutes), this is a nice, wild, alpine Canyon.
The most interesting section starts at around 1200 m elevation and continues down to the valley floor; above that, there are other rappels of limited interest.

Idrologia:
The canyon carries a consistent water flow all year round.

Accesso:
Park in the village of Fervento (VC) in Val Sermenza (it's not easy to find a parking).

Avvicinamento:
Walk along the provincial road toward Rimasco, pass the hydroelectric plant on the Sermenza river, and after a few minutes, take the iron bridge on the left to cross the river.
From there, follow trail 381 toward Alpe Chignolo.
After about 1 hour of hiking, cross a small iron bridge reinforced with supports over a minor stream, then continue the final 3 minutes uphill in the forest along the CAI trail. Here starts the little path to the alternative Start (see later description).
Normal Start:
Walk further to the next waycross at 1330müM, take the right way until you reach the canyon. This start is 50m higher and 270m longer than the alternative start.

Path to the alternative Start (slippery, exposed, 40m abseil from a tree into the canyon):
At a junction, trail 381 continues left toward Alpe Chignolo; for the canyon, keep right (sign Canyoning) following stone cairns. Continue contouring just below trail 381 without losing elevation for about 5 minutes through the forest, until you must climb slightly — keep right here (a short exposed section). From there, traverse gently left and start descending toward the stream through rough, steep terrain (about 40 m elevation loss).

Giro:
A alpine canyon featuring 12 rappels, the highest being 50 m, with several linked rappels, handlines, and a couple of deviations.
It is well equipped, mostly with chain anchors and rappel rings on the more complex pitches.
The section leading to the 50 m rappel is the highlight — aesthetically striking and engaging.

After the final 27 m rappel (with a high left-hand deviation and a difficult rope retrieval), continue along the streambed among boulders and slippery sections that should not be underestimated, until reaching a small bridge.
Exit to the right here and walk about 5 minutes to return to the starting point.

Warnings:
> Rope friction inside the small grotto at the end of the third rappel (C32).
> Rope retrieval issues on the fifth rappel (C28) due to vegetation that can snag the rope.
> Friction at the very start of the sixth rappel (C30).
> Jump immediately after the C50: shallow water, not recommended.

Torrente tecnico da percorrere in primavera per incontrare un bel reggime d'acqua. Ha un' avvicinamento medio lungo 1 ora mezza per una piacevole mulattiera, poi poco intuitivo l' accesso al torrente ma almcartello canyoning prendere quel sentiero none poi dopo 30 metri girare a sx a mezza costa.Prima parte 7 calate continue, seconda calata con deviatore a sx, 3 calate da 35 metri una bella sessione con due calate concatenate 17 MT + 35mt, poi camminata sul greto del torrente dipende da chi la percorrere può variare da 5 minuti a 10 minuti per le persone meno preparate fisicamente. Seconda sessione la più bella 4 calate concatenate l' ultima una 50 metri in cascata bellissima. Poi un tuffo qualche toboghino e ultima calata 25 MT circa con deviatore a sx. Camminata lunga per uscire dal torrente nello setsso gretoe a volte conviene camminare nel Bosco. possibilità di fare anche parte alta per un totale di circa 18 calate. Pablo wants to re-rate the canyon (his first entry/first canyon); he’s already adjusted the rating once, as I’ve done again... I know over 1,000 different canyons, so I’m well-equipped to judge just how beautiful a canyon is. Open Canyon is a site for private canyoners, not for companies. We want reviews so people can plan their canyoning vacations! This was the worst canyoning tour of our three-week vacation. You have to downclimb boulders or hike along the stream for half the elevation gain in the canyon—and we’re pretty nimble! The hike to the canyon was also boring through the gloomy forest. If you have enough time, you can do the canyon... it does have a few nice spots. We also recommend the entry at 1,290 meters above sea level (the regular hiking trail). (traduzione alternativa)

It's better to follow the hiking trail until it crosses the stream. The "Canyoning" sign marks a slippery crossing, after which you rappel down 40 meters. Nice spots, but too much "caca bloc." (traduzione alternativa)

Non è facile trovare il punto di accesso, fortunatamente c'è un cartello con scritto "canyoning" e poi alcune corde per un passaggio un po' esposto... non tenersi troppo alle corde xche sono attaccate ad alberelli; ultimo pezzo molto ripido l'abbiamo fatto con una doppia da un abete. Il canyon è bello, un po' discontinuo ma ci sono 2 belle sequenze di cascate, l'ultima calata ha un forte sfregamento ma non abbiamo visto il deviatore

2 nice sections with 2 long boulder walks... The 50 m relais is really beautiful, a bit slippery

On gulliver complete informations Beautiful hidden canyon in the wild sermenza valley, long walk and not so obvious access, there is a new indication "CANYONING" where you have to abandon the main path to reach the canyon. The descent is divided in 2 sections with 10 min. walk between... some nice and unespected aesthetic abseils, also a 50 m rappel. V4A2III, 4h + 1,15 h approach.
